

Fair Use Agreement of Copyrighted Material

The following Fair Use Agreement of Copyrighted Material is hereby entered between the copyright owner Mr. Frederick Broecker and the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association. This agreement extends to the fair use of the Widows Sons Patch Logo / Widows Sons Patch Modern Design which has been duly copyrighted with the Copyright Office of the United States of America and has been issued the Registration Number of: VAu 991-465.

This agreement is exclusive to the chapters and members of the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association and is a non-transferrable agreement. The author reserves the right to issue additional fair use agreements to chapters and jurisdictions of the International Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association outside of the state of Illinois.

Fair Use of the Widows Sons Patch Logo is determined by the following terms and conditions:

1. Each chapter and its members within the State of Illinois may own and display the copyrighted material for all legitimate purposes pertaining to membership within the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association as set forth by the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association bylaws.
2. Chapters and members of the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association may use the copyrighted image to manufacture or produce accessory items such as lapel pins, tee shirts, rings, belt buckles, coffee cups, commemorative patches, and any such product which benefits the member's chapter. Each chapter or member may assign this right to the manufacturer or vendor of their choice.
3. No member or former member shall make use of the copyrighted logo for commercial purposes or for personal gain.
4. Back patches may only be produced or manufactured by persons or businesses which have been issued a valid Manufacturing License by the copyright owner.
5. No back patches may be sold or transferred to any persons or members who reside outside of the state of Illinois.
6. Back patch design modifications may not be effected by any chapter or member without the unanimous consent of the Illinois Council of Presidents of the Illinois Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association.
7. Back patches may only be issued to Master Masons which are members in good standing of an Illinois chapter of the Widows Sons, and a member in good standing of a lodge which is recognized by the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the State of Illinois. Excepting the approved Widows Sons Lady patch which may be issued to any member's female riding companion.

This agreement shall be binding between both parties and will remain in perpetuity or for so long as there are chapters of the International Widows Sons Masonic Riders Association within the state of Illinois.
